NEWS TICKETING STRENGTHENS TEAM

The chief operating officer of News Ticketing, Harley Evans, today announced the appointment of Lara Bevan and Erin Riley as senior client relationship managers.

In their roles, Ms. Riley and Ms. Bevan are responsible for managing the client relationships of some of News Ticketing's key clients including the Sydney Royal Easter Show, Queensland Museum, Supanova and Groovin' the Moo.

Ms. Riley and Ms. Bevan join News Ticketing from Ticketek and Ticketmaster respectively and in their roles report into Mr. Evans.

Mr Evans said: "Erin and Lara both bring an immense amount of ticketing knowledge and experience with them having spent many years managing the ticketing for some of Australia's most notable venues and events.

"We warmly welcome their enthusiasm into the team as we continue to provide our clients with exceptional, high-level service and expertise to help them deliver their event to the highest possible standard."

Erin Riley

Ms. Riley has worked in ticketing for more than eight years in a variety of roles covering customer service, box office management and account management, most recently at Ticketek.

During her career, Ms Riley has managed the ticketing for some of Sydney's most iconic venues including Acer Arena, Hordern Pavilion, and Parramatta Stadium.

Ms Riley said: "There is a real buzz about News Ticketing in the market at the moment. I'm very much looking forward to being part of the change they are bringing to the industry."

Lara Bevan

Ms. Bevan has spent 12 years in the ticketing industry working in varied roles at Ticketek and Ticketmaster nationally and internationally.

Ms. Bevan has managed the ticketing for some of Australia's biggest venues and events including The Sydney Entertainment Centre, Circus Oz, Avalon Air Show, The Melbourne Cup Carnival, Future Music Festival and the Sydney Festival.

Ms. Bevan said: "The new energy the team is bringing to the market made News Ticketing a very attractive place to work. I'm excited to be joining the team at this great time."
